

2008 EDUCATIONAL SEMINAR SCHEDULE

	New Construction (Builders)	Easy Ways to Make your Home Green (Homeowners)	Green Building Public Policy (Anyone)
9:00	Waste Not. Want Not: Waste Management & Recycling The Waste Management Authority is starting to enforce the 50% diversion law. How to comply and avoid fines.	Green Landscape Design Simple ways to update your landscaping to use less water and less maintenance.	What's New with the CEC? Talk about the carbon and greenhouse gas emissions legislation and what that means to all of us.
10:00	California Energy Commission's New Solar Homes Partnership Media Event (main stage)
11:00	Getting Green for Going Green: Utility Rebate Programs SMUD, PG&E & Roseville Electric program updates to help offset the cost of green building.	Your Home the Work Horse: Evaluating Your Home's Energy Performance What is a home performance contractor and how do I hire a knowledgeable one? Find out the Energy Efficiency and Air Quality of your home.	Building a Green Collar Workforce Green collar jobs are jobs that stay in the US. They can't be outsourced overseas. Many subcontractors need skilled "green" labor. Where do you find them?
12:00	Lunch - Key note Speaker - on show floor	Lunch - Key note Speaker - on show floor	Lunch - Key note Speaker - on show floor
1:00	Marketing & Selling Green Homes Marketing and selling a green home goes beyond energy efficiency. What are today's homebuyers looking for in a home that green homes provide? Where do green mortgages fit in? Get CEC market data.	Green on a Budget We'll show you how to get the biggest green bang for your buck. There are a lot of simple changes you can make that will lower your energy bill, make your home more comfortable and help the environment.	Path to Zero Energy Homes Wouldn't it be great to have an electric/gas bill that said you owed nothing? Great goal, trade-off analysis.
2:00	Cost Effective Green Building Building green doesn't have to break the budget. A systematic approach to a green building budget. Advanced Framing techniques.	Utility Programs and Tax Credits for Remodels What rebate and tax credit programs are out there if you're remodeling?	The Power of the Sun: Solar Thermal Discussion Learn more about the use of solar energy in our community.
3:00	Green Building Certification Programs Panel discussion on LEED for Homes, a national certification program and California Green Builder and Green Point Rated, both California certification programs.
4:00 -6:00		Interactive Integrated Design	Interactive Integrated Design